Here's the Secret of Day-Through Energy

If you want to start the day with a zest, step into a warm bath first thing. There is nothing like it to drive away the kinks and cobwebs of sleep. Then in the evening, when the day's work is done, relax in a tub of warm water. The tension and cares of the day will vanish like magic.

You will want hot water ever-ready. A new automatic natural gas water heater supplies it... any time... conveniently and economically. Give yourself and your family this necessity of the modern home.

Look for the Blue Star Seal of the American Gas Association Testing Laboratory when you buy a new automatic natural gas water heater from your plumber, dealer, or gas company.

GYUAN-KIRSHMAN NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

The wedding of Miss Rosemary Guyan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Guyan, to Lawrence K. Kirshman of Hollywood was solemnized by Rev. O. D. Wonder with a charming ceremony at Central Evangelical church, Saturday evening, January 30, at 8 o'clock in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautifully gowned in blue taffeta made period style and carried an arm bouquet of butterfly roses. A wreath of orange blossoms completed the ensemble. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Guyan as bridesmaid, who wore peach taffeta and carried pale pink and orchid sweet peas. Barbara Lee Watson, flower girl, in an orchid taffeta frock, scattered rose petals before the wedding party. Basil Brady of Lomita attended the groom as best man while Chris Dobrick and Jake Grosscup ushered. The procession entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Margaret Gensler Dobrick, who later accompanied Mrs. A. W. Johnson, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The recessional was Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 50 was given at the bride's home, 1807 Andree avenue. Mrs. Guyan, who wore a black crepe gown with ecru lace, was assisted by Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. J. H. Fess. Mr. and Mrs. Kirshman left for a motor trip in the northern part of the state. Upon their return they will take up residence in Hollywood.
